

Help! I'm a Father

Men's split session

Father's quickly sense the responsibility to provide for and protect their children physically but often struggle to embrace the responsibility to guide them spiritually.

How does a father guide his children spiritually?

- 1. Focusing on your relationship with God is foundational to fatherhood.
- 2. Fostering a strong relationship with your wife is crucial to fatherhood.
- 3. Embracing your responsibility to your children is essential to fatherhood.
 - A father is responsible for knowing his children.
 - A father is responsible for instructing his children.
 - A father is responsible for correcting his children.

Miscellaneous thoughts on fatherhood, or things I would do differently:

Enjoy time together as a family.

Be cautious of always being negative.

Don't be afraid to let your children fail.

Listen to your children.
