

Who is God the Son?

... and we saw His glory, glory as of the only begotten from the Father, full of grace and truth (NASB; John 1:14).

And He is the radiance of His glory and the exact representation of His nature ... (NASB; Heb. 1:3).

And the Word became flesh, and dwelt among us ... (NASB; John 1:14).

... Christ according to the flesh, who is over all, God blessed forever. Amen (NASB; Rom. 9:5).

For in Him all the fullness of Deity dwells in bodily form (NASB; Col. 2:9).

God the Son is “the only begotten from the Father,” “the radiance of His glory and the exact representation of His nature,” Who, being the eternal Son of God, became man, and so was, and continues to be, God and man in two distinct natures, and one person, forever.
