

1. Delectable Mountains “they came to the Delectable Mountains”

Delectable = delightful, pleasing

They were asked three questions:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

“Few of them that begin to come hither, do _____.”

Shepherds named:

- | | |
|----------|----------|
| 1. _____ | 3. _____ |
| 2. _____ | 4. _____ |

2. Wonders “shall we show these pilgrims some wonders?”

A. A hill called _____ “hearkening to _____ and _____.”
(2 Tim. 2:17-18)

B. Another mountain called _____.
Men wandering among the _____
because they were captured by _____.

No wonder Christian and Hopeful cried “with tears gushing out!”

C. Another place in a bottom, where was a _____, a “by-way to _____.”

People who seemed to be believers (“a show of pilgrimage”) and yet ended up in hell:

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____ and _____

D. A high hill called _____

Perspective glass = viewing device, like a telescope or binoculars

3. Ignorance “a very brisk lad” from the country of Conceit
“be content to follow the religion _____”

4. Turn-away “a man whom seven devils had bound”
On his back a paper said: _____

5. The story of Little-faith “a thing that happened to a good man hereabout”

Attacked by three sturdy rogues (bad men), named:
_____, _____, _____

He looked as white as a clout (piece of cloth), and he couldn’t fight or fly (run away).

They rob him, but miss two important things:
1. _____ 2. _____

he made shift (made an attempt, found a way)
to scrabble (struggle, scramble) on his way

Hopeful: Why couldn’t he have sold his jewels, like _____?
caitiff = a coward, a person of low character

Christian: You talk like one “whose head is in the shell.”
Like a baby bird running around with the eggshell still covering his head.

Hopeful: “Your severe reflection (remarks that reflect badly on me) had almost made me _____.”

Even _____ would have had his hands full with these three rogues.

Christian lists four Bible characters who were assaulted by them:

1. _____ (made him groan, moan, and roar)
2. _____ (author of Psalm 88, “my soul is full of troubles”)
3. _____ (Isaiah 36-39)
4. Peter, “they made him at last afraid of _____.”

They are dangerous because they can call on their King (of the bottomless pit). Like the beast Job called _____ (Job 41), swords, spears, darts, and habergeons (armored coat made of metal rings) cannot stop him. Maybe someone with Job’s _____ (Job 39:19) could, but not ordinary footmen like us.
