

1. Talkative again “then Faithful stepped forward again, and said to Talkative...”

“I have heard many cry out against sin _____,
who yet can abide it well enough _____.”

“He does not lay the blessing in the _____ of them, but in the
_____ of them.”

Then Talkative at first began to _____.

2. Evangelist again “It is my good friend Evangelist”

“You are not yet out of the _____.”

“you will soon come _____... be you sure that one or both of you must _____.”

He that shall die there will have it better, because he will:

1. _____

2. _____

3. Vanity Fair “at the town there is a fair kept”

The town was moved “in a hubbub” about them, because of:

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

What will ye buy? We buy _____.

To miss this town, you must needs go _____.

This is a good week to consider listening to Pastor Minnick's sermon on Vanity Fair, posted on the church web site or available in the bookstore.

4. In the cage “put them into the cage”

In the cage, a complicated sequence of events unfolds:

A. Christian and Faithful give _____ for injuries done.

B. Some kind observers, “more observing and less prejudiced,” rebuked the crowd.

C. The angry crowd counted these kind men as

D. The kind men replied, “there are many that trade in the fair that are

_____.”

E. After divers (various) words, the two groups of observers did

F. The Christian and Faithful were taken to the examiners, and charged as

G. Christian and Faithful behaved themselves _____

H. The pilgrims won to their side _____

I. The “other party” (the angry crowd) concluded
