

The Blessing of Unity PSALM 133

D D Em A7 D

1. Be - hold, how good, how sweet it is, A pleas - ant thing to see,
 2. As Her - mon's dew, fresh from a - bove, On Zi - on's mount de - scends,
 3. So we, made one by Zi - on's rule, Made one at Cal - va - ry,

D D Em A7 D

When we as bro - thers in the LORD A - bide in u - ni - ty!
 So is the bles - sing God com - mands; 'Tis there His life He sends.
 A blest com - mun - ion now en - joy— The Spir - it's u - ni - ty.

D Bm A7 D Em A

As frag - rant oil on Aar - on's head, His beard, His robes o'er - flowed;
 For on that sac - red mount of old God's Lamb for sin a - toned;
 A priest - hood then in Christ we share, As we His glo - ry see,

D D Em A7 D

The bless - ing of the LORD de - scends As we His one - ness show.
 And there shall He as Da - vid's Son Re - turn to be en - throned.
 And lift our sac - ri - fice of praise In peace and har - mo - ny.
