

O Lord, You Know PSALM 139

1. O Lord, You know my heart, You search my spir - it
 2. You close my way be - hind And guard my path a -
 3. Where could my spir - it hide Or from Your pre - sence
 4. You formed my in - ward parts And wove my mor - tal 5. How dear your thoughts t'ward me, More count - less than the 6. Come search me now, O God; Lay bare my in - most through; My ris - ing and my rest, my ways are known to head; My ev - ery lot by Your own hand Is wise - ly flee? Though I a - scend to heav'n Or dwell in dis - tant frame; Be - fore they came to be My days were all or - sand. I turn a - way from those Who hate and scorn Your heart. Know ev - ery an - xious thought, Try ev - ery hid - den

You. Be - fore my thoughts be - come my speech, You led. So high Your thought! Your ways di - vine no sea, In ev - ery place, in dark and light Your dained. My soul will mar - vel at Your ways And hand. Your en - e - mies are mine, O Lord! Let part. Cleanse an - y hurt - ful thing You see And know them each from long a - go. mor - tal mind can ful - ly know.

 Spir - it bright is ev - er near.
 fear and praise Your ho - ly Name. fall Your sword in judg - ment just!
 ev - er lead me in Your way.
