The above lesson schedule for Gospel Self-Talk: The Discipline of Sanctified Self-Address attempts to emphasize the importance of a believer's ministry to himself. Preaching to one's self is a necessary spiritual discipline, and God has always intended that His people practice the discipline. Believers have the full mountain range of biblical truth to harness for their preaching. This series focuses on truth at the heart of all truth – the glorious Gospel of Christ.

As we taught through the material, we often spent more than a single week on each lesson. You may find it helpful to do the same.
