

How do we become partakers of Christ's redemption?

He saved us, not on the basis of deeds which we have done in righteousness, but according to His mercy, by the washing of regeneration and renewing by the Holy Spirit, whom He poured out upon us richly through Jesus Christ our Savior (NASB; Tit. 3:5-6).

No one can say, "Jesus is Lord," except by the Holy Spirit (NASB; I Cor. 12:3).

We become partakers of Christ's redemption by the effectual application of it to us by His Holy Spirit.

(Westminster Shorter Catechism, Q. 29)

(Note: What neither the light of nature, nor the law could do, that God performs by the operation of the Holy Spirit through the Word or ministry of reconciliation, which is the glad tidings concerning the Messiah, by means whereof it hath pleased God to save such as believe, as well under the Old, as under the New Testament (Canons of Dort, Chapters 3 and 4, Article 6).)
