

Parenting from God's Perspective

What is God's perspective of your family?

The family is designed by God to be the primary place of learning about Him and His world. (Gen. 1:28-29; 2:16-17; 18:19; Deut. 6:1-9; Jud. 2:6-10; Psa. 145)

How do we as parents fulfill this purpose?

1. The family is the primary place to learn to love and admire God.
  - A. Learning to love and admire God at home.

  - B. Learning to love and admire God at church.

2. The family is the primary place to learn to love and serve others.
  - A. Learning to love and serve others at home.

  - B. Learning to love and serve others at church.

C. Learning to love and serve others in the community.

3. The family is the primary place to learn about redemption.

A. Learning about the problem of sin.

Questions that get to the heart:

What was going on?

What were you thinking or feeling as it was happening?

What did you do in response?

Why did you do it? What were you seeking to accomplish?

What was the result?

B. Learning how to show mercy to others.

C. Learning about forgiveness with others.

Parents are instruments in God's hand to provide insight for our children and to teach them about living in God's world.
