

What are the Mosaic covenant's gracious provisions?

So then, the Law is holy, and the commandment is holy and righteous and good (NASB; Rom. 7:12).

For through the Law comes the knowledge of sin (NASB; Rom. 3:20b).

... I would not have come to know sin except through the Law (NASB; Rom. 7:7b).

... there are those who offer the gifts according to the Law; who serve a copy and shadow of the heavenly things. . . (NASB; Heb. 8:4b-5a).

For the Law, since it has only a shadow of the good things to come and not the very form of the things, can never, by the same sacrifices which they offer continually year by year, make perfect those who draw near (NASB; Heb. 10:1).

The Mosaic covenant's gracious provisions are (1) God's good and holy Law, (2) the knowledge of our sin, and (3) the shadow of Christ's saving work to come.
