News From All Over

Charles Richard Nelson Sr., age 89, of Chillicothe, Illinois, entered his heavenly home on August 7, 2021, due to complications from COVID. He pastored four churches in Illinois and then served as missions director of the Association of Independent Churches of Illinois for ten years, retiring in 2018. Jan, his wife, survived the COVID virus and remains to faithfully pray for their twenty-six grandchildren and thirty-one great-grandchildren.

Pastor Art Zacher and his wife, Melodie, will be retiring to Greenville, South Carolina. From 1999-2022 Art was pastor of Berean Baptist Church in Fairfield, California. Previously he was involved in starting churches in Connecticut and New York and was principal and teacher at several Christian schools. His book Keys to the Kingdom: Parables of Jesus, which he co-authored with Doug Peterson, is scheduled to be released by Westbow Press in March or April of this year. Art plans to continue writing books and enjoying his grandchildren.

thunder, smoke, and threats to man lest he approach. Then we have God's efforts to meet with man through the tabernacle, the temple, and to speak to mankind in person in a less threatening way than Mt. Sinai, through the person of Jesus. The law books tell man where he goes wrong, and the prophets plead for him to return to God with repentance, faith, love. These are all messages to humanity on what to do about that distance, Christ being the way. Hebrews 1:1-2 and 2:1-3 seem to summarize the Bible's message as salvation. And the very end of the Bible quotes Jesus saying, "Yes, I am coming quickly," as if to say "We are back together!" Frankly, if a preacher at church were to say, "Glory to God, Joe Shmoe is now in hell," I couldn't get out of that church fast enough. Not saying Mark S. would advocate saying that from the pulpit, but it seems to me pointing out [that] God is equally glorified by people rejecting Christ could lead there.

- Speaker at the pre-convention conference in Buffalo when the FF was organized in 1920.

My mind is still open on this subject, which I do not consider of the first importance. I am rather inclined to believe in the Virgin Birth, but it is not essential to Christian faith. . . And should not be made a condition of church membership or ordination.

1922 National Meeting: Agreed to Differ, but Resolved to Love

There has been much talk about the necessity of Issuing some Baptist confession of faith. . . . We have no body of delegates with power to impose upon our churches a confession of faith or a creedal statement. . . If the Northern Baptist Convention should appoint a committee to draw up a Baptist statement of faith, we should never allow the committee to report back to the Convention, we should never formally adopt the report as our official statement.

--Opening Address

The Northern Baptist Convention affirms that the New Testament is the all-sufficient ground for Baptist faith and practice, and we need no other statement.

After three hours of heated debate, this motion carried by a standing vote of 1, 264 to 637.
