

At All Times I Will Bless the LORD PSALM 34

In loving memory of David Barak Hamilton, September 27, 2017

1. At all times I will bless the LORD, my mouth sing
2. I sought the LORD; He rescued me from all my
3. O taste and see that GOD is good; O fear Him!
4. Je - ho - vah's eyes are toward the just; He hears their 5. The LORD is near the bro - ken heart and saves the con - stant praise. My soul is con - fi - dent in fear and dread. The poor in spir - it look to In Him hide! Young li - ons hun - ger, but for trou - bled cry. He turns His face a - way from crushed in soul; Though man - y trou - bles try the GOD and boasts in all His ways. The hum - ble hear my Him, their fac - es un - a - shamed. This poor man cried; GOD you the LORD all good pro - vides. Who - ev - er longs for those who work in - iq - ui - ty. The LORD will save His just, GOD saves him from them all. GOD keeps his bones; not hope in Him and joy in Yah - weh's fame. O mag - ni - heard and saved him from his deep dis - tress; The An - gel length of days should learn to fear the LORD, Do good, seek right - eous ones from all their deep dis - tress, But He will one will break, but wick - ed men are slain. The LORD re - fy the LORD with me! Let us ex - alt His name! of the LORD sur - rounds His saints in faith - ful - ness.

peace, and keep his lips from speak - ing e - vil words.
make the earth for - get all the men of wick - ed - ness.
deems His ser - vants' souls; no guilt in them re - mains.